

“...AND MISS
REARDEN
DRINKS
A LITTLE.”

AND MISS REARDON DRINKS A LITTLE

by Paul Zindel

presented with permission of dramatists play service, inc.

THE TIME: Today, the present
THE PLACE: The Reardon sisters' co-op apartment near New York City
THE SCENE: Ceil Reardon Adams is expected for dinner by her sisters, Catherine and Anna.

The Companyin order of appearance

CAT DAVIS AS CATHERINE
is a nineteen-year-old freshman majoring in Secondary Education-Speech and Theatre. Active in high school, summer, and community theatre, she has performed in OUR MISS BROOKS, TRIFLES, and HIGH BUTTON SHOES. Cat would eventually like to write and direct, as well as act.

MARY ANNE TAYLOR AS MRS. PENTRANO is a junior transfer student from Lehigh Valley Community College, and a Secondary Education-Speech and Theatre major. Her credits range from THE FANTASTICKS and UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE in high school to PLAZA SUITE and the role of Snoopy in YOU'RE A GOOD MAN, CHARLIE BROWN, at L.V.C.C.

BRETT KRASNOV AS THE DELIVERY BOY
divides his time and interest among Secondary Education - English, his major; music, his first love; and the theatre. A sophomore from Elkins Park, near Philadelphia, Brett has been seen in DREAM PLAY and THE LITTLE PRINCE at KSC.

GINGER MOSER AS CEIL
eventually wants to teach art and still remain active in theatre work. A second-semester Junior from Potomac, Maryland, Ginger is an Art Education major with a crafts emphasis; she is enrolled in Acting at KSC, and, as Ceil, makes her debut on our stage.

DENNI JONES AS ANNA
enjoys the theatre as a diversion from her major in Art Education. In her sophomore year at KSC, Denni is continuing to make her presence known in the field of theatre. Last year she appeared in the Readers' Theatre Festival and the Annual Childrens' Theatre production.

DIANE BREININGER . . . AS FLEUR STEIN
is a graduate of Kutztown High School where she first appeared on stage in BLACK COMEDY. A senior majoring in Secondary Education-Speech and Theatre, Diane is president of Readers' Theatre and Alpha Psi Omega and has been active in campus productions as well as in Readers' Theatre festivals on the East Coast.

MARK THOMAS AS BOB STEIN
comes from Mechanicsburg, Pa., and is a second-semester freshman majoring in political science. His previous acting credits include the lead role in CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN before coming to Kutztown. The role of Bob marks his introduction to KSC audiences.

G. VLADIMIR RUSEN . . . AS PRODUCTION ASSISTANT AND STAGE MANAGER has found himself busy in both roles: A junior in Art Education from Scranton, he has appeared in numerous KSC productions, the latest of which was "The Faeries Ballet" from THE TEMPEST where he played Cupid. "Gary", as many know him, is also our theatre department scene shop technician.

Director: Roberta Crisson
Technical Design: Marilyn McKay
Lighting Design: ... Robert Reinecke

Technical Crew

DESIGN EXECUTION:
John Dreibelbis

BUILDING:
Donna Broadwater, head; Donna Stephens,
Jim O'Connell, Debbie Budd, Tim Newhart,
Sandi Isgro, Martha Kuhns, Terri Anne
Beckner, Wendy Wissler

PAINT:
Richard Reeser, head; Judy Hirt, David
Miller, Joy Simon, Gerald Simon, Scott
Newhart

PROPERTIES:
Holly Pascavage, head; Rosemary Bateman,
Patricia Giffert, Virginia Kuyan, Robert
Mannix

COSTUMES:
Frank Stewart, head; Holly Coble; Cynthia
Rau, Erin Garrity, Michael Loparo

LIGHTS:
Mark Bodkin, head; Ed Palamar, John
Crampsie, David Miller

SOUND:
Patrick Walsh, Mary Lawler

PROGRAM DESIGN & PUBLICITY:
Scott Hunt

Upcoming Events

Oct. 24 & 25

Readers' Theatre at Clarion

Nov. 7, 8, 10, 14, 15, & 17

One Acts

Nov. 15 & 16

Readers' Theatre Festival