WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

JOHN EDWARDS, a graduate of Delaware Valley High School, is a junior theatre major. He was seen in Charlotte's Web, Babes in Arms, and The Thanksgiving Visitor. After graduation, John plans to move to California to accomplish his dream of appearing on the silver screen. If that doesn't work out, "at least I'll be where it is warm."

ANDREA GNALL is a sophomore speech and communications major from Greentown, PA. She appeared last fall as Sister Agnes in the Drama Club's production of Agnes of God. Last spring, she portrayed Alice in the Readers' Theatre Production of Alice in Wonderland. Her past roles also include Helen Keller in Miracle Worker, Pepper in Annie, and Myrtle Mae Simmons in Harvey. She wishes to thank her family for their loving support of her during all these hectic years.

ANNE SAYRE is senior theatre major from Long Island, NY. She has appeared in several KU productions including How To Succeed in Business. . . and The Great American Backstage Musical. She has also participated in several Sunshine Players productions. Her professional credits include appearing with the Imperial Players in Cripple Creek, Colorado and a tour in Virginia Beach with an improvisational touring company. Anne has appeared locally with Reading Civic Opera and The Limelight Theatre Company. Upon graduation, Anne plans to pursue her acting career in New York.

GINNY BOWERS-COLEMAN, a junior theatre major from Akron, PA, was last seen on KU's stage playing Marjorie in Extremities. Besides acting on campus, Ginny works backstage as assistant director and stage manager for Sunshine Players' productions and over the summer at Ephrata Playhouse in the Park. She is currently president of Sunshine Players and secretary of Alpha Psi Omega.

MICHAEL HIMES is a junior psychology major/theatre minor from York, PA. He has been seen in past productions at Kutztown in Babes in Arms and Cabaret. He also is active at York Little Theatre and has appeared in Guys and Dolls, Jacques Brel is Alive and Well and Living in Paris, My Fair Lady, and Kiss Me, Kate. In his spare time, he is a DJ on KU's radio station.

DREW FREDERICKS is a sophomore, criminal justice major from Manasquan, NJ. He was seen as Clifford Bradshaw in last spring's production of Cabaret. His past credits include appearances in Grease, No No Nanette, Mame, and the ever-popular Oklahoma.

UPCOMING THEATRE EVENTS

The Turn of the Screw, adapted for the stage by Annette Mazzaferri. A young governess begins to see evil hovering over the two young children in her charge. Are spirits of the dead seducing the children, or is the governess imagining everthing? Join us for an evening where we retell this famous ghost story. Thursday-Saturday, November 8-10, 1990, 8:00 PM, Rickenbach Theatre.

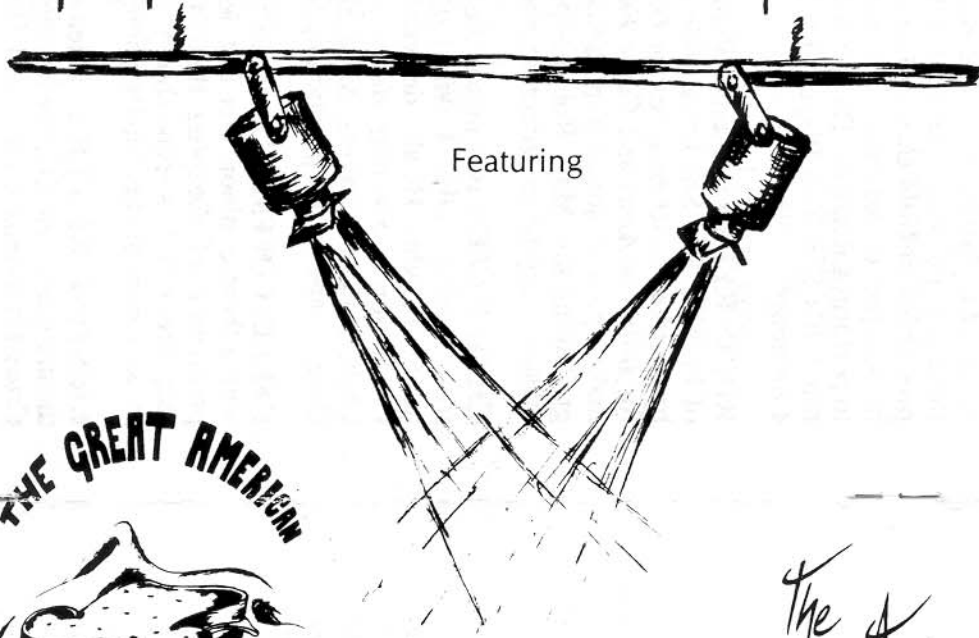

How the Grinch Stole Christmas, by Dr. Seuss. A participatory theatre piece for children, script adaptation by Dr. Eugene R. Huber. Dr. Seuss' holiday favorite is brought to life on stage in an original live presentation. Children will be invited to participate as citizens of "Who-ville," and join in a sing-along of Christmas favorites, on stage!! Saturday, December 1, 1990, 2:00 and 8:00 PM; Sunday, December 2, 1990, 2:00 PM, Rickenbach Theatre.

Once Upon a Shoe by Joseph Robinette. An inventive staging of the Old Woman who lived in a shoe, interspersed with familiar Mother Goose tales. The production will be presented by the students enrolled in THE 210, "Production and Performance for Young Audiences." Tuesday, December 11, 1990, 11:00 AM, Rickenbach Theatre.
